

Parkside Elementary School Parent Involvement Policy

The Parkside Title I Committee shall be responsible for:

- A. The development of the Parkside Title I Parent Involvement Policy. The school policy shall include the following components:
 - a. Description of how parents will be involved in the planning, review, and improvement of the school's Title I program.
 - b. Description of how the school-parent compact is developed jointly with parents. The compact shall outline how parents, the entire school staff and students will share in the responsibility for improved student achievement. The compact shall be reviewed by the Parkside Title I committee on an annual basis and revised as deemed necessary by the committee.
 - c. Description of how the school will provide parents of participating children with timely information about the Title I program.
 - d. Description of how the school will provide parents of participating children with a description and explanation of the curriculum in use at the school, types of academic assessment used to measure student progress, and the proficiency levels students are expected to meet.
 - e. Description of how the school will provide assistance to parents in understanding the State's academic content standards and students achievement standards, state and district assessments used to measure student progress, and the proficiency levels students are expected to meet.
 - f. Conduct an annual meeting to be held to inform parents of the Parkside Elementary's participation in the Title I program including the requirements of the program and their right to be involved.
 - g. Provisions to ensure that parent meetings, including parent conferences, will be held at different times of day to accommodate parents' schedules.
 - h. Description of how the school will provide, if requested by parents, opportunities for regular meetings to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their children.
 - i. Description of how the school will provide materials and training to help parents work with their children to improve their children's achievement.
 - j. Statement of how Title I funds may be used to pay reasonable and necessary expenses associated with parent involvement activities, including transportation, childcare, or home visit expenses to enable parents to participate in school-related meetings and training sessions.

- B. In the event that the Parkside Elementary is identified for School Improvement, the school's Title I plan must include a description of how the school will involve parents in the joint development of the School Improvement Plan.
