2012 Pinnacle Award Recipients Named Murray Education Foundation announces eight honorees

February 23, 2012, Murray, UT – Murray Education Foundation (MEF) proudly announces recipients of the 9th Annual Pinnacle Awards, a recognition that honors outstanding efforts of excellence in education in the Murray City School District. In collaboration with leading Utah businesses and the Murray community, the program's purpose is to recognize that educators, classified employees, and volunteers are important, and that outstanding achievement is appreciated and recognized.

This year's Pinnacle Awards recipients are:

- Trudy Burton – Horizon Elementary reading coordinator (12 years in Murray schools)
- Barbara Haun – McMillan Elementary 6th grade teacher (21 years in Murray schools)
- Kay Morgan – Murray High School CTE Foods/ProStart teacher (22 years in Murray schools/26 total)
- Alan Scott – Murray High School choral music teacher (17 years in Murray schools/23 total)
- Kathie Webster – Riverview Junior High instrumental music teacher (27 years in Murray schools/31 total)
- Karen Peterson – school secretary, Liberty Elementary (22 years)
- Traci Black – volunteer, Viewmont Elementary

These five educators, one classified employee and a volunteer will be honored guests at the yearly Pinnacle Awards Gala, Thursday, March 22, 2012. They will also be presented a cash award of $500, a statuette and a gift basket. Community, business and education leaders will gather at this special event to recognize the exemplary educational efforts of these recipients as the Gala is held in the Commons Area at Murray High School.
